

The Rye and District Branch and Women's Section of the Royal British Legion

Rye Annual Remembrance Day Parade and Civic Service

Sunday 10 November 2013

The Annual Service of Remembrance will be held in Rye Parish Church of St Mary's at 10.55 am (1055hrs).

Everyone will be welcome.

Participants should be in the Church by 10.50am.

The service will be preceded by a parade of Service, civil and youth organisations in front of the Town Hall at 10.40 am (note change from previous years) where the Mayor will inspect and take the salute.

During the Service, the Standards of the RAFA and Women's Section will be laid up.

After the service, there will be a short ceremony at the War Memorial in the churchyard where there will be the observation of a silence and the laying of wreaths and crosses.
